- As a person who loves baby golden retrievers , I want a filter to list the years of age of each pet to help me select.

- As a veterinary technical for 10+ years, I want a information section that tells me a list of vaccines a pet has taken and its past medical history.

- As someone who has a decent budget to adopt a pet, I still prefer to know the price of adapting each pet just to give myself a general idea.

- As a person who likes to interact with pets to know their characters, I want to to schedule a session with pets that I like to adopt to see if I get along with them.
